SUE PORTER TO DEMONSTRATE WATERCOLOR TECHNIQUES

Majoring in Art brought Sue to Clovis where she has been teaching painting for the last two and a half decades, teaching in the very prestigious Clovis School District, Clovis Adult ED. She has established a great reputation of being the best in her field. The many students, who studied under Sue, developed referrals of being a Master Painter, and a Master Teacher; some of her students have themselves become successful artist. ~ A great tribute to Sue

Teaching: ~ Sue will always greet you with a wide smile and encourage you to take the first steps in painting. No matter how you do in the first few lessons, if you show you are willing to work hard, have a stick with it attitude, a willingness to learn, she, in turn will give you the best of herself. On the other hand, if you come into her class, sit, and wait until she has to tell you every mark to take with a brush, you might as well pack up and go home. Her philosophy - "You must have a fire in your belly, a willingness to investigate, a greed for knowledge, the ability to absorb as much information as possible and still want more. Now that's material for a great - up – and - coming artist!"

Awards: "I really have no trouble winning awards. I may not get first place every time, but I do give it a run. I usually win something in the top three." Sound like bragging? Not at all. "I worked really hard to win". "If you want to learn how to win, then you need to sign up for my workshops, or my classes."

~ Classes are usually full! Sue says "Be a producer not a person who waits a week or two to paint a painting for competition." Many paintings give you choices. And remember, no painting is good enough! It has to be perfect!"

Commissions: "I love helping others finish off a room or an office, with one of my beautiful paintings". This summer, "I painted three commissioned paintings and gave two workshops. "Commissions keep me busy and I love making people happy."

Happy Painting!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The Old West Show was a rousing success despite a few starting glitches. A big thank you goes out to all of you who turned out to help with the show. Special thanks also to our judge, Dennis Lewis who not only turned up for the reception, but also stayed and shared his knowledge with artists and guests. A special insert has been included in this month's issue showing the winners and a few shots of the show.

Speaking of shows, it's time to get small. The miniature show will be held in July at The Fresno Art Hub this year. Thank you to Diane Breuer for hosting the show! This is a big departure for this show as it will be the first time it has been held in a real gallery! You can expect the prospectus to go out with next month's newsletter.

We had a small turnout for our Pick Of The Month in April so I hope we can all do better in May. I look forward to seeing you at Sue Porter's demo this month.
