PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Summer is here, and boy is it hot! I hope all of you are staying inside where it's cool to paint. For me, the middle of summer is one of the hardest times to get motivated. The Fourth of July is coming up soon, and I want to remind everyone, the loud, noisy celebration sometimes isn't a happy time for our fur families. Firework explosions can be frightening for both cats and dogs.

Usually at this time I'm encouraging everyone to paint small for the Miniature Works show. Sadly, we aren't going to have it this year, but there are several other places where you can show off your smaller paintings. Please stay safe over the holidays.

We are pleased to welcome Jim Morris, a relatively new member, who has graciously volunteered to work on our website. Many thanks! ■

~ Gail Daley

DEBORAH PEPIN July 13 Demonstration — Pastels

If you attended the CAG Old West and Rodeo Art Show in April you got to see Deborah Pepin's beautiful artwork. She was the Best of Show winner, the People's Choice Award winner, 1st place winner in the Mixed Media / Pastel / Drawing / Graphics combined category, and winner of the Mary Krause Award. She also took 1st place in Pastels in the Society of West-Coast Artists 2022 72nd Annual Exhibition of Art, open now through July in San Bruno. See www.societyofwest-coastartists.com.

Deborah Pepin was born and raised in the San Joaquin Valley and is a self taught artist. She lives and paints in the shadows of the San Joaquin Mountains and you will often find her painting in the rural countryside out side of Fresno. Deborah has always been a creative but really didn't start her art career until about 2011 when she took a watercolor class with a local artist. In 2016 she was introduced to the Pastel Medium and her love for this medium took off. She works most of her landscapes and plein air work in pastels and oils.

She works out of her studio in her home if she isn't outdoors painting plein air. She often travels to Arizona, Texas, South Dakota, Nevada, and New Mexico to paint. She paints and studies everyday.

Deborah is a member of Pastel Society of America, SWA, Cambria Center for the Arts, Central California Coast Pastel Society (3CPS) and is on the board of Pastel Society of the West Coast.

Deborah lives in Sanger with her husband and son, 2 dogs and 4 cats. ■
